Portrait of Grace

The Grace Chair is for the aesthetes. Truly, a design entwined with its name. Pure Grace.

Grace Chair

The backrest is an ode to the silhouette of the classic feminine dresses of the middle decades of the 20th century. The proportion and balance of the seat and legs is full of intent.

Meditation Vessel

The Pema is more than an armchair. It is a vessel for wellbeing, a temple for meditation and enlightenment.

Designed to be used in your place of choice for a retreat, be it a spa, a meditation space, a place of spiritual significance, or just your home, the Pema is shaped as a cocoon for the body, mind and soul. The soft seat is scaled to be ideal for a Full Lotus posture, and can also be used as a conventional, comfortable armchair.

Folding screens can set the scene.

Their narrative feel is seductive, provoking imagination. Their materiality, color and forms purposefully embody Munna's quintessence: the closeness of contemporary and vintage, the architectural and the intuitive.

This must be the place

A place to live life, and to escape from it. Sleeping and dreaming. For passion, for love, for family.

Beds can be quiet and graceful, as sleep should be. Yet, beds can also be an expression of personality, complement one's charisma. And become the statement in a room.

Munna's beds are the quintessence of eclectic harmony. An idiosyncratic aesthetic that mixes and matches the historic and contemporary.

The old and the new. Connecting the dots with a soulful approach to design, curated by an alchemy of color, emotions and handcraft.

Heritage of Craftsmanship

In our times, the crafts stand proudly as tradition, as the paradigm shifts towards the rigors and competitiveness of technology. To create products founded on the crafts, fostering and furthering artisanship with an integrated design approach is not a just a celebration of tradition. It's part of a continued effort of research and development of the traditional arts & crafts.

Munna's uncompromising approach to local craft and the curated eclecticism of its designs have been the trademarks of a brand that is fostering the path for design made in Portugal.
