MILAN, 2025 | The Portuguese brand Munna, renowned for creating handmade upholstery with unmatched craftsmanship, is launching new designs inspired by Arts & Crafts, Cinema, and Couture at Salone del Mobile Milan: the Robert Sofa, Josephine Modular Sofa, Margaret Armchair with Brush Fringe, Lana Armchair, and their first-ever outdoor product, the Fringes Rattan Stool.

Munna’s new classics approach to design is reflected in this fresh collection. Paula Sousa, founder and creative director, explains that “the new designs aim to bring Renaissance influences into the interior design scene, incorporating tassels, pleats, and intricate details into contemporary pieces, blending historical elegance with modern craftsmanship and sophistication”

For contemporary living, Munna introduces the Josephine Modular Sofa, designed with versatility in mind, offering a modular approach that invites creativity and personalization for any space. The Lana Armchair, with its soft curves and sculptural silhouette, is another new addition to Munna’s range. Paula Sousa notes that “Lana draws inspiration from the fluidity of nature, bringing a sense of calm and beauty to any interior.”

A special highlight is the Fringes Rattan Stool, Munna’s debut outdoor product. This piece combines traditional craftsmanship with modern design, offering a perfect blend of comfort and elegance for outdoor spaces.

The exhibition at Salone del Mobile Milan is titled “Chess Club”—a captivating stand interior that draws inspiration from the strategic elegance of a private chess club. The stand will feature live jazz sessions and chess matches, creating an immersive experience where craftsmanship and creativity come together to reflect the unique, strategic thinking behind each design.

Munna is exhibiting alongside Ginger & Jagger at Salone del Mobile Milan, Hall 14, Stand B32, from April 08-13, 2025.

ROBERT 280 SOFA

Robert Sofa draws its inspiration from the bold strength of skirts pleats, renowned for their history, craftsmanship, and resilience. With a design that mirrors the powerful folds of tradition, the design offers both comfort and a striking presence, especially emphasized by the pleated arms. Paying homage to figures like the poet Robert Burns, it speaks to the legacy of Scottish artistry.

Each pleat, meticulously stitched, reflects the enduring strength and style that defines this piece.

JOSEPHINE MODULAR SOFA

Channelling the aesthetic of the Art Deco movement, the Josephine Sofa features a wonderfully elegant fan-shaped motif, with accentuated curvy lines and a decadent, lavish finish. The feminine curves are ravishingly enhanced by the different coloured toned piping. Now available as a modular sofa, it can be seamlessly combined to create your interior design configuration

MARGARET 210 SOFA

With Brushed Fringe, stately and cosy, the Margaret Sofa is a feminine and sartorial piece that brings effortless style to an interior. It has distinguished and charismatic long lines, sinuous curves and a rich seat cushion with lavish upholstery.

LANA ARMCHAIR

Lana Armchair seamlessly blends vintage Hollywood allure with contemporary design. Reminiscent of both nostalgia and modernity, its graceful curves and meticulous upholstery evokes classic sophistication, while tassel details on the arms add a playful yet refined touch. The armchair invites relaxation and enhances any space with its poetic energy and timeless presence.
